

The Caribbean Maritime Institute
presents

SAS

Be What You
Want to Be!

Traffic Crash Investigating and Reporting

A scientific approach to investigating and reporting traffic accidents

A 10 week course which includes training, practical exercises and field work, covering areas such as:

- Road user collision analysis
- Photographing crash scenes
- Evidence gathering and recording
- The crash investigation and reporting process
- Interviewing techniques
- Preparing the collision report
- Roadside safety
- Traffic control at an accident scene

Instructors trained by
The Institute of Police Technology and Management (IPTM),
the University of North Florida

JUNE 6, 2017 – AUGUST 15, 2017: Tue & Thu: 5:30– 8:30pm

Duration: 60 hours • Cost: $65,750

Register Online: <https://srs.cmi.edu.jm/web/signup>

*Approved by the Road Safety Unit, Ministry of Transport and Mining

* ISO:9001:2008 certified

Contact: The School of Advanced Skills, Caribbean Maritime Institute
Tel: 9248150 • Email: advancedskills.SAS@gmail.com